Department circular telegram 807.

In absence Foreign Minister in Istanbul I took up reference telegram yesterday afternoon with Secretary General Yolga who appeared expect some such approach and reviewed Turkish position as follows:

Result is that what we now suggesting already done as matter of considered policy some months ago in form of de facto non-recognition and difficult see what could now be done directly with Cubans in form of action or admonition which would not compromise existing void in relations. However, GOT agrees on strong measures to bring Castro to heel and prepared give us full support in UN or any other appropriate way.
